Alarmphone

Hotline for boat people in distress. Offers support and organizes rescues.

THE ALARM PHONE IS NOT A RESCUE NUMBER, BUT AN ALARM NUMBER TO SUPPORT RESCUE OPERATIONS.

We ourselves cannot rescue anyone; we are not in the area and do not have boats or helicopters. If you are in distress at sea or are experiencing a pushback, please follow these steps:

1. Call the coast guard and tell them about your situation of distress.
2. Call the Alarm Phone. We will make sure that your distress call is acted upon.
3. If you are not promptly rescued by the coast guard, call the Alarm Phone again. We will inform humanitarian organisations and public media to put pressure on the rescue services.

In case of emergency call +334 86 51 71 61

W2eu.info

Independent information for refugees and migrants coming to Europe. Information on rights, laws and the border situation of almost every European country (in English, French, Arab and Farsi). At the outer borders of Europe, people are refused entry, they are imprisoned and deported. Nevertheless people are coming. We welcome all travellers on their difficult trip and wish you all a good journey - because freedom of movement is everybody's right!

<https://w2eu.info/>

Trace the Face

A number of National Red Cross Societies in Europe are publishing photos of people looking for their missing relatives in the hope of reconnecting families. Check if your family is looking for you or publish your photo to enable your family to contact you.
